	Chief Administrative Officer	EFFECTIVE DATE:	June 7, 2016
SUBJECT	BANNER POLICY – ENTRANCE GATES / DOWNTOWN CORE

Policy Objective

The purpose of the Banner Policy is to provide potential clients with the general guidelines, and rules for posting banners at the entrance gates to the Town of Gananoque, and in the downtown core.

General Guidelines & Rules

- Applicants may be non-profit organizations, charities, community-oriented organizations, festivals, tourism related activities and others at the discretion of the Town
- A drawing of the proposed banner including size, colour and material is required with application
- Event banners are to be requested through the Public Works and Recreation Department

- Banner Requirements: unless otherwise approved by the Public Works Department:
 - Size: Banner Poles (downtown core) – maximum 3’ x 30’, Grommets – top and bottom each side

- Timing:
 - Banners are required to be dropped off with Town staff one week prior to installation
 - Each event is permitted to advertise their event 14 days prior to the event, as per the by-law.
 - Banners are to be removed immediately following an event
 - Banners on gates are to be one-sided; banners on light poles to be two-sided

- Applicant:
 - Event holders would be responsible for their own costs of the banners
 - It is the event holder’s responsibility to pick up the banners immediately after event; the Town is not responsible for storing any banners.
 - REQUIREMENT OF APPLICANT: Review and complete application
 Banners to be dropped off at Town Hall
 ¼” gauge rope – 30’ (Banner Poles only)
 $The Application fee is set out in the Towns Fees and Rates By-law as amended.

- Town:
 - Public Works and Recreational staff will be required to remove and replace banners
 - If banners are deteriorated or if a dangerous condition presents itself, the Town may remove the banners accordingly.
