HERITAGE SMITHS FALLS presents the 4th Annual

HERITAGE SYMPOSIUM

Friday, October 23rd, 2015 @ The Station Theatre

YOU ARE INVITED!

A downtown core is a visible indicator of a community's well-being. A downtown's vitality and commercial success will attract tourists, new residents and new investment opportunities.

Coming from Thorold, Ontario, Adele Arbour will discuss the necessary ingredients to create a revitalized, thriving and attractive downtown core.

Maire Hogan of Elizabeth Interiors and Steve Maddock of HyFund Studio will be joining us to discuss why they chose to relocate their business to a heritage building in Smiths Falls.

Andrew Edmondson from the Heritage Institute at Algonquin College will be presenting on their Masonry Program and will be available to answer questions.

Robin Pixar will demonstrate his product, Rhino Wood Repair, an innovative compound that acts as a wood replacement and may change the face of wood repair options.

Jan Hawley is back and will be presenting on how to fill empty storefronts. Her innovative 'Win This Space' business recruitment initiative is fostering growth opportunities in Huron East.

Join us for lunch and refreshments by Magnolia Catering, interesting exhibits and opportunities to meet with our other attendees.

ADMISSION: $15 STUDENTS: $10

RSVP by October 16th: Niki McKernan: nmckernan@smithsfalls.ca (613) 283 4124 ext.1116
